
April 2025 Newsletter

Here's what has happened in the last months and what's to come!

Welcome to our April newsletter!
We are thrilled to share with you the latest developments in our mission to make a positive impact in the lives of our Gifted children and our community.

Firstly, we would like to express our gratitude to all our sponsors and volunteers who have continued to support us during these challenging times. Your generosity and dedication have allowed us to keep our programs running smoothly and effectively.

We are truly overjoyed as we reflect on what God has enabled us to accomplish at KNFU. Your unwavering prayers and support have enabled us to uplift and empower our Gifted children and we are witnessing tremendous growth and improvement in both their wellbeing and learning. Our efforts in promoting inclusive education have yielded positive results as shared by the heartwarming testimonies from parents and guardians below:

" Thank you so much for the joy and beams of smiles you have brought to my son Francis." Francis' mum.

"You have brought meaning and fulfilment to my life. Seeing my son Victor play and express himself despite his speech challenges brings tears of joy to my eyes." Victor's mum.

"After 6 years at KNS, we've seen Elijah grow into a responsible boy. He occasionally joins his dad at work on panel installation projects. As a parent of an autistic child, this gives me a renewed hope that he is growing into an independent young man" Elijah 's mum.

Term 1 Activities

Interms of our recent activities, Our children visited Uganda Wildlife Education Centre (UWEC) and Nakiwogo Landing Site in Entebbe where they learnt about wildlife and water transport last month. Some of our gifted children this term have actively participated in football, netball and swimming activities. These activities have played a vital role in shaping their godly character instilling in them values of teamwork, resilience and the belief that hardwork and believing in self pays.

All these programs aim to improve access to quality education and promote a love for learning among our Gifted and all the other children at Kings' Norton School.

We thank God for the incredible team of 32 teachers, administrators and support staff. Each of them have constantly played a significant role in supporting our pupils learn, thrive and grow.
